

Quetzal Fun Quiz – Solutions

Q 1. Where can you see a Quetzal in its natural habitat?

A 1. You can see a Quetzal in Central America.

Q 2. What does the Quetzal have on its head?

A 2. The Quetzal has a crest on its head.

Q 3. What colours can you see on this Quetzal's front and back?

A 3. This Quetzal has a gold-green front, and a blue and gold back.

Q 4. What are some other features of the Quetzal?

A 4. The Quetzal has a long tail and a belly that's red.

Q 5. Where does the Quetzal make its nest?

A 5. The Quetzal makes its nest in a hole in a tree.

Q 6. What does the Quetzal eat?

A 6. The Quetzal eats insects.

Q 7. What does the Quetzal use for eating?

A 7. The Quetzal uses its curved beak for eating.

Q 8. What is special about the Quetzal?

A 8. The Quetzal was the sacred bird of the Mayas and Aztecs of long ago.

Q 9. Where is the Quetzal considered special?

A 9. The Quetzal is considered special from Panama to Mexico.

Q 10. The Quetzal can be described as not just a beautiful bird but also as what?

A 10. The Quetzal can be described as not just a beautiful bird but also as a living part of history.

Fun with words – Meanings in Context considered = thought to be crest = a bunch of feathers on the head of a bird

resplendent = grand, colourful and beautiful sacred = holy, of a religious nature, worthy of respect wonder = a feeling of wanting to know more about something

Tidbit – Helpful Hint

> Some examples of National Birds are: The National Bird of India is the Indian Peacock, the National Bird of the United States is the Bald Eagle, the National Bird of the United Kingdom is the European Robin, the National Bird of Australia is the Emu, and the National Bird of New Zealand is the Kiwi.