

Tiger Fun Quiz – Solutions

Q 1. Where can you see the Tiger in its natural habitat?

A 1. You can see the Tiger in a jungle in India.

Q 2. What is the full name of the Tiger found in India?

A 2. The full name of the Tiger found in India is the Bengal Tiger.

Q 3. Can you describe the Tiger's paws, jaws and tail?

A 3. The Tiger has huge paws, sharp-toothed jaws and a swishing long striped tail.

Q 4. What does the Tiger's skin look like?

A 4. The Tiger has brown-gold skin with thick black stripes.

Q 5. What can the Tiger's glare do?

A 5. The Tiger's glare can make anyone quail.

Q 6. What effect does the Tiger have on other beasts?

A 6. The Tiger strikes terror in the other beasts and hunts them for its prey.

Q 7. Where is the Tiger placed in the food chain?

A 7. The Tiger is placed at the top of the food chain.

Q 8. Why is the Tiger hunted for its skin and bones?

A 8. The Tiger is hunted for its skin and bones because many people in China believe that eating its parts makes them strong, but this belief is completely wrong.

Q 9. What does the Tiger feel is best?

A 9. The Tiger feels it is best left alone in the jungle to hunt and teach its cubs.

Q 10. What does the tiger teach its cubs?

A 10. The Tiger teaches its cubs to avoid Man, be good if they can, and rule the jungle, when their time comes.

Fun with words – Meanings in Context

avoid = stay away from food chain = a system in nature where some creatures live by feeding on other creatures

majestic = grand, royal, like a ruler

quail = shrink with fear

swishing = move with a soft hissing sound

Tidbit – Helpful Hint

> Yes, there are White Tigers, which have white fur with brown stripes. These are a genetically different variety of Tigers.